Dedication

Since the time we entered high school four years ago, our class advisors have helped us with all our various activities, everything from refereeing class meetings to chaperoning dances and supervising bake sales. We are very grateful to them for their guidance and patience, and we wish to repay them in some measure. "Our revels now are ended" in this building, and the Carthadian is the last thing we, as a class, have to offer to our class advisors and to the school for remembrance's sake. It is our hope that they will retain gratifying thoughts of their years with us, and to show our fondness and appreciation, we, the Graduating Class, dedicate this, our 1960 Carthadian, to Miss Grace MacMillan and Mr. Ezra Hockenberger.

Miss Grace MacMillan

Mr. Ezra Hockenberger

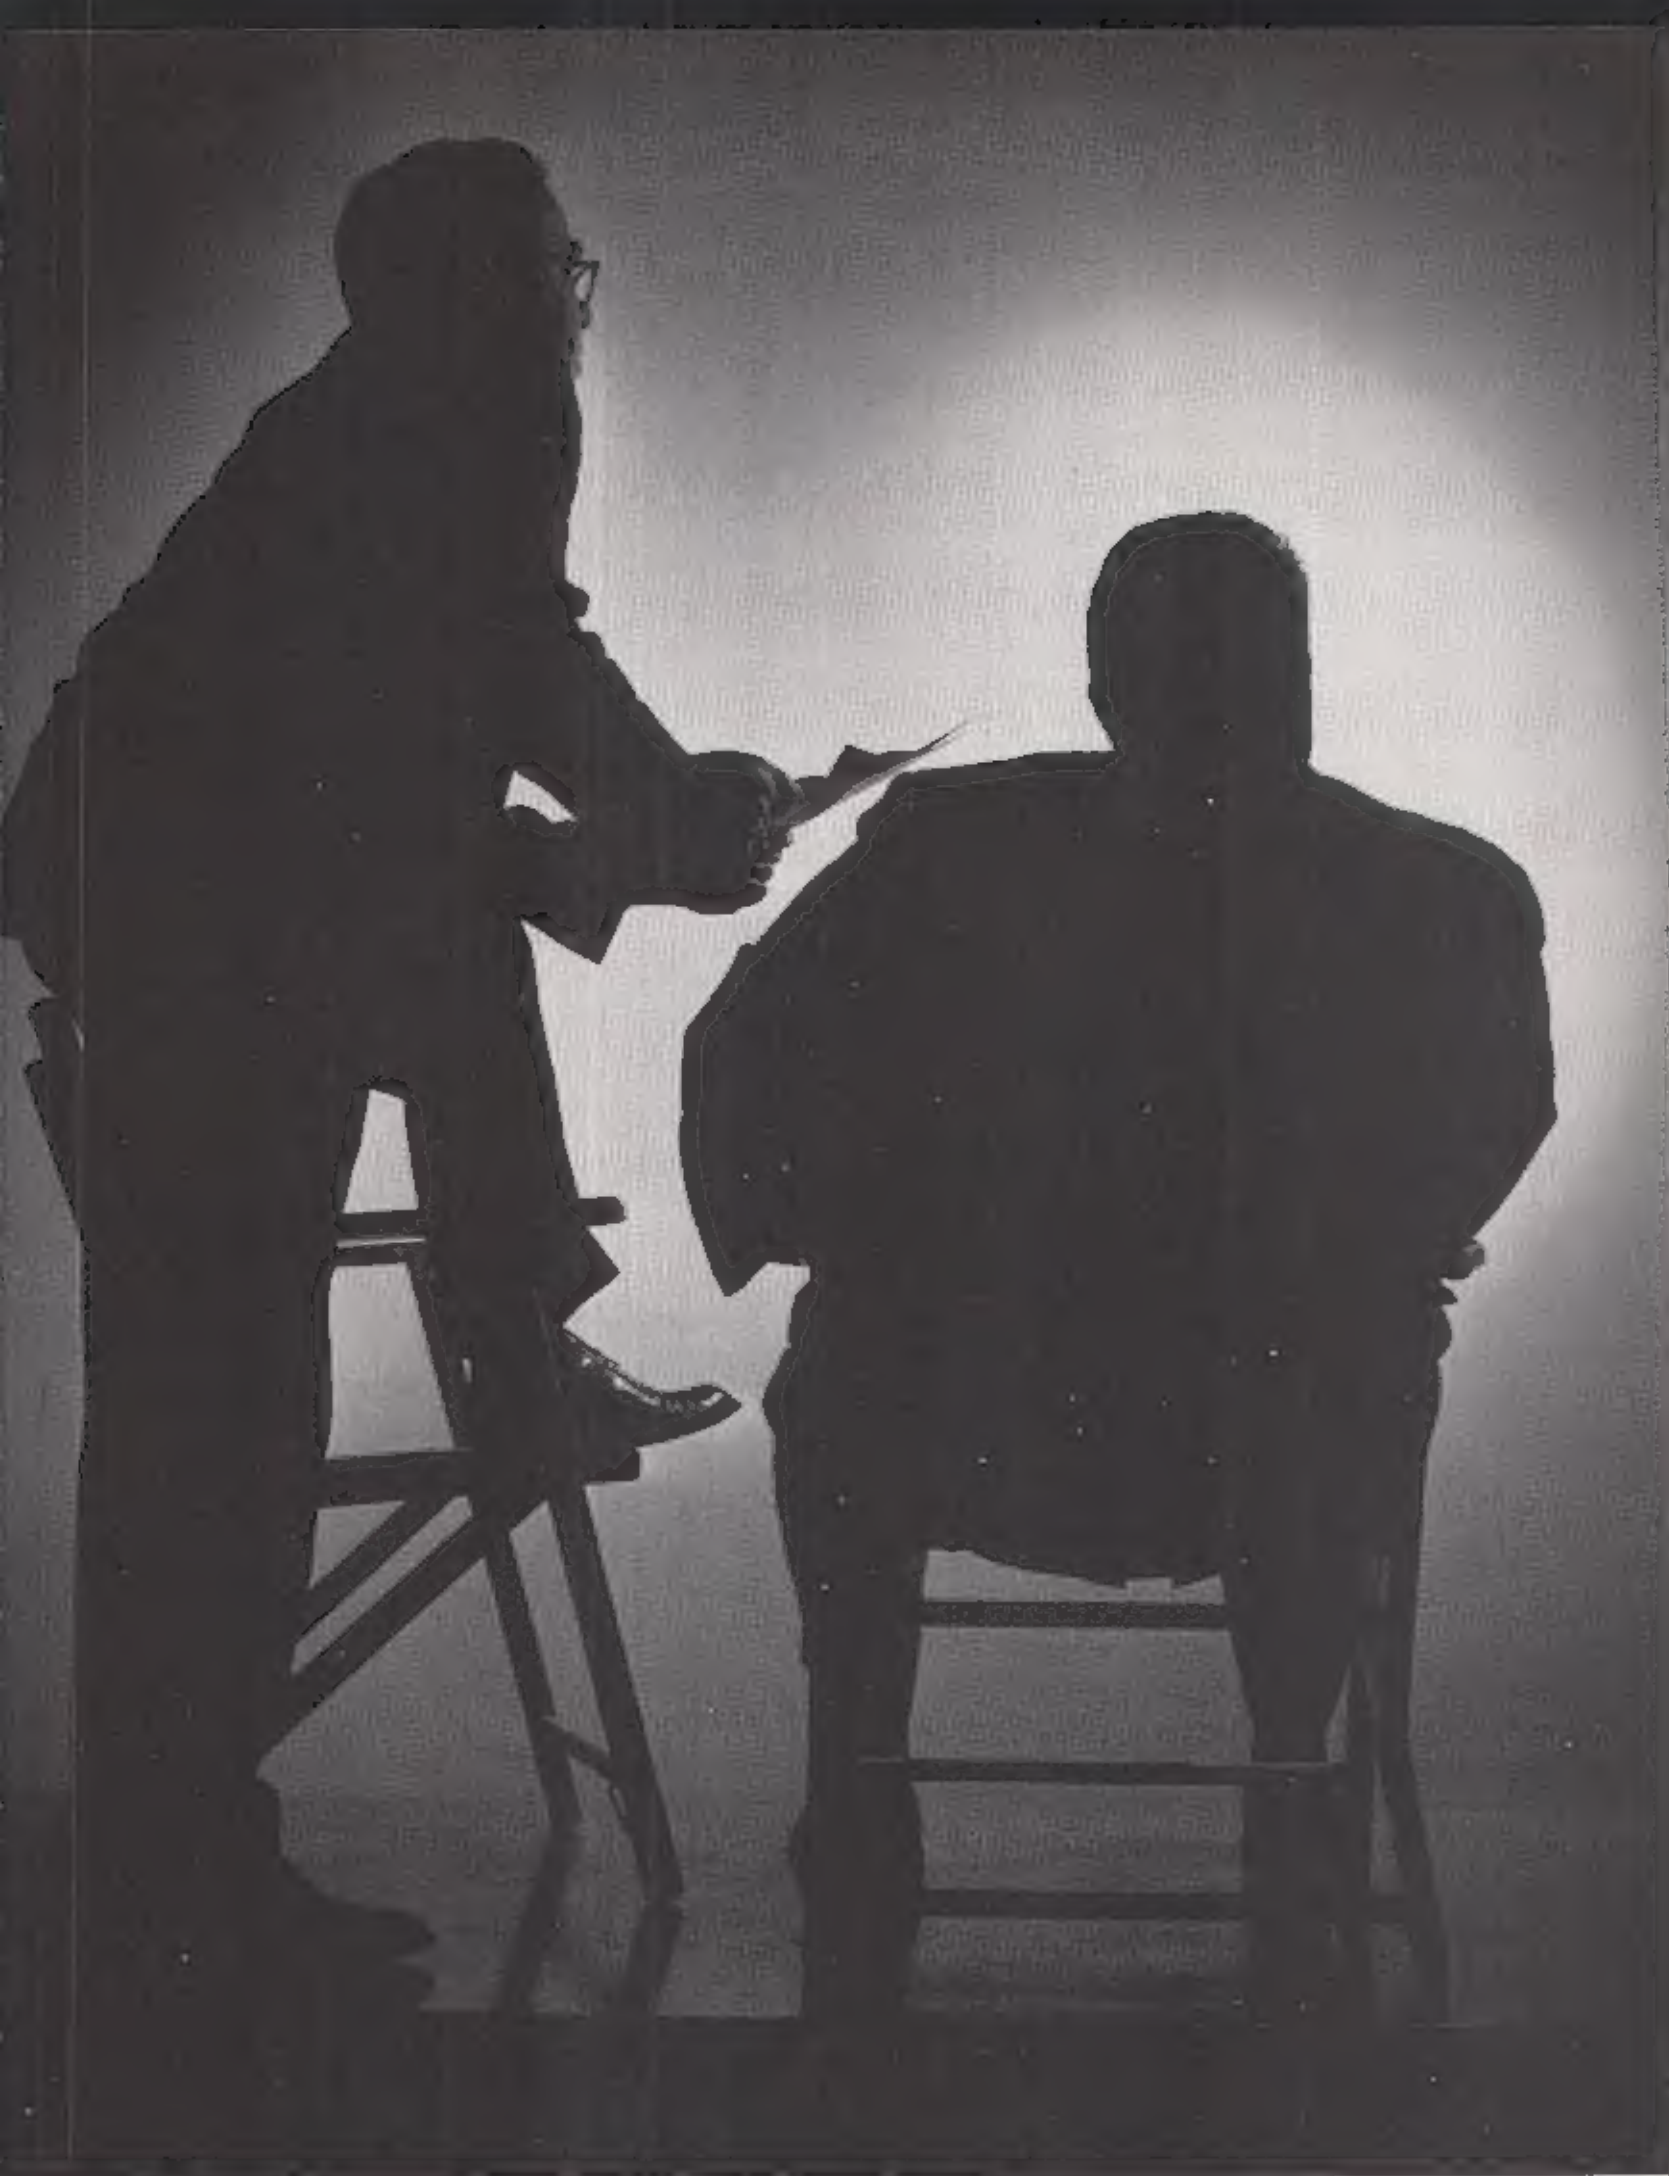

Inasmuch as it has been said, "All the world's a stage," we have attempted to draw parallelisms between our school and the theater.

Through our school years we have been actors in life's play. Each one of us assumes a distinct and important part in society. To aid us in our various roles, the administration and faculty have endeavored to direct our footsteps toward our "opening night"—Graduation. With everyone's doing his part we shall achieve a successful climax to our secondary education.

No other time in our lives could be so momentous as this which we are fast approaching. From here we may either choose to progress or allow ourselves to fall back into insignificant roles in life. It is our desire that in later years we may look back at this yearbook with pride that we have advanced to greater things. With these thoughts in mind we, the graduating class of the Carthage Central Junior-Senior High School, present the 1960 Carthadian.

Alma Mater

In Black River Valley
 Stands our Alma Mater dear;
 Her loyal sons and daughters
 Are faithful through the years.

Carthage, we love thee;
 We hail thee so true.
 We pledge our loyalty—our hearts,
 In gratitude to you.

Comets reign forever;
 Victories are fairly won;
 The scarlet—silver banner
 Soars proudly in the sun.

Sing our Alma Mater;
 Raise our voices to the sky;
 Long live dear Carthage Central;
 Her praises never die.

The promotion of character, leadership, scholarship and service is the chief purpose of the Robert G. Wallace Chapter of the National Honor Society. To advise the group in its monthly and various special meetings are Mrs. Henry Gilbert and Mr. Gilbert Malerk. The officers are Sally Brown, president; Linda Lehman, vice president; Annette Tehonica, secretary; and David Bezanilla, treasurer.

Early in the year the students can be heard discussing the acts that are being put together for the Annual Variety Show which is sponsored by the Society. Much to the enjoyment of the student body, everyone is invited to enter the competition.

In November a dignified and solemn induction ceremony served to impress the student body with the importance of scholastic achievement.

National Honor Society

Creating enthusiasm for superior scholarship, developing loyal pupil citizenship, and stimulating a desire to render service are among the chief endeavors of the National Junior Honor Society. Under supervision of Miss Alice Kapfer, the members try to promote trustworthy leadership and encourage the advancement of character.

The importance of scholastic achievement in junior high school was stressed by the group when the annual induction ceremony was presented in the auditorium. Officers of the society are Susan Lehman, president; Noreen French, vice president; Joanne Parkinson, secretary; and James Galloway, treasurer.

JUNIOR HIGH

SENIOR HIGH

Guided by Mr Jack Flanigan, the Senior High Student Council prompts the advancement of better school spirit and cooperation between students and teachers. Beside directing the affairs of the student body, the society has sponsored a "Daisy Mae Drag," the first, it is hoped, of many more novelty dances. In December CCS students contributed old clothing which the Council packed in observance of "World Clothing Week." Student Council officers are Bill Cole, president; Sally Brown, vice president; Jane Gates, secretary; and Don VanPatten, treasurer.

Student Council

From the work of the Junior High Student Council comes a better understanding between junior high faculty and students. The group, advised by Mrs. Jack Flanigan and Mr. Virgil Weaver, distributes Christmas trees throughout the building, provides flowers for teachers on Teacher Recognition Day, and helps with the Christmas program. The Council's officers are Brenda Warren, president; Sue Lehman, vice president; Sandra Mosher, secretary; and Richard Doehling, treasurer.

Traffic Squad

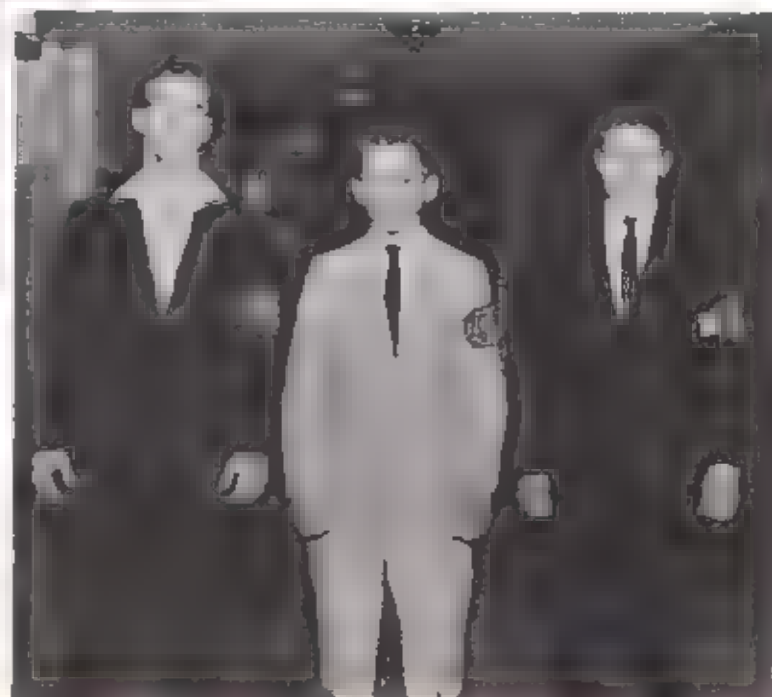

Robert Pierce, chief, leads the Traffic Squad in the regulation of traffic flow through the corridors. This very valuable service club, advised by Mr. Kemp, prevents congestion while classes are passing. The members, divided into two squads headed by deputies William Eckelman and Merritt Lehman, help visitors and new students in locating classrooms and other places around the building. These boys, with their red and white arm bands, are a symbol of the cooperative spirit of the students.

Officers

William Eckelman, deputy;
Robert Pierce, chief; Merritt
Lehman, deputy.

Serving the school, assisting in library routines, book talks to classes, the yearly picnic, book circulation and processing, reference problems, and participation in the Central New York Student Library Assistants Organization are some of the many activities of the Library Club. The purpose of the club is to be a service to the school, to better inform students concerning books and libraries, to stimulate reading and to build character. Mr. Lawrence Zecher is the advisor assisted by Connie Paige, president; Sandra Higgins, vice president; and Karen Kitts, secretary-treasurer.

Students at work in the quiet atmosphere of the library.

Literary Club

Under the supervision of Miss Janice Colburn, the Literary Club Publishes the Clarion to inform the students of Carthage Central School of the school organizations and their activities.

The day students find copies of the Clarion on sale during the lunch period, excitement grows in anticipation of the latest gossip, club accounts, and feature articles. Everyone enjoys reading about interviews with students and teachers, who give opinions on varied subjects, and about the results of the latest record polls.

We appreciate the school service rendered by Kathie Hamilton, editor; Karen Lovejoy, assistant editor; Chris Munger, business manager; and Doreen Boshart, exchange editor.

Commercial Club

Mr. Ronald McLaughlin has led many of the business students in forming one of the most important service organizations in our building, the Commercial Club. Operating the school supplies store and printing the Clarion, our school newspaper, have not only been a benefit to our student body; but these activities have also aided the commercial education of participating students. Leading this club in its all important position are Kay Allen, president; Linda Thomas, vice president; Mary Fletcher, secretary; and Lyle Covey, treasurer.

The Future Farmers of Carthage Central School take part in public meetings as a part of the national organization. The boys of this club are studying Vocational Agriculture in school. Mr. Henry S. Watkins advises the boys about financing themselves, solving their problems, buying and selling co-operatively, and assuming responsibility. The Future Farmers are active in County F.F.A. Speaking Contests, chapter meetings, and judging. They conduct crop demonstrations, attend leadership training sessions, and have exhibits at the Jefferson County Fair. The officers are Byron Kampney, president; Harold Persha, vice president; Edward Jones, secretary; Robert Harper, treasurer; Gary Miller, reporter; and James Freeman, sentinel.

Safety is the rule in Ag. 10 class.

The Future Nurses Club with Miss Mary Jane Kavanaugh and Miss Martha Vitlo, advisors, meets every second and fourth Thursday with the Watertown Nurses Club. The purpose of the club is to further the interest of high school students in health careers, and to better acquaint the members with health procedures. These will be carried out when the girls begin work in the Watertown hospitals. The club officers are Rita Magliocchetti, president; Linda Griswold, vice president; Joy Steiner, secretary.

The exploration of the opportunities of the teaching profession is the main goal of the Future Teachers Club. Guided by their advisor, Mr. Gilbert D. Malerk, the members of this organization are given an inside view of what a teaching career may involve. Valuable experience in classroom procedure is gained by assisting high school and elementary teachers. Visits to Potsdam and Oswego State Universities of Education last year offered an accurate picture of college life. Plans to visit other colleges are being made this year. Officers of the vocational club are Jane Gates, president; Priscilla Phillips, vice president; Annette Tehonica, secretary, and John Franck, treasurer.

The advisors of the Jaco Midgets Club are Mr. Lawrence W. Lyman, Mr. Gino Zando, and Mr. Ray Lava, representatives of the St. Regis Paper Company, who devote some of their valuable time to further the interests of students in this activity. The purpose of this club is to train the members in business procedures. Their activities consist of manufacturing and selling a product. The club officers are as follows: Kay Allen, president; Clinton Schloop, vice president; Cyrena Lunderman, secretary; and Jim Barden, treasurer.

Projection Club

The Projection Club instructs students in the operation of visual aids materials and provides audio-visual service to the school. Mr. George A. Gregory directs the activities of this club. Last year a trip to WCNY-TV in Champion and to WSYR-TV and Syracuse University Collendale Campus, TV headquarters at Syracuse University, were among their activities. As this is merely an informal organization, there is no slate of officers.

Mrs. Edwin Pickert strives to create an active interest in theatrical productions among high school students. The Thespians meet every Wednesday night after school to perform pantomimes and short plays.

At Christmas time the Thespians entertained the student body with an assembly program. Exeryone enjoyed the typical Christmas scenes.

The officers of the club are Jo Ann Reed, president; Rita Magliocchetti, vice president; Donna Lee Wright, secretary; and Donna Saber, treasurer.

Miss Elizabeth Tobin directs the members of the Junior Dramatics Club in developing the basic principles of drama and in making this art more realistic to junior high school students.

The club activities include the study of dialogues and stage mechanism, presentation of one act plays and pantomimes, and interpretation of poetry.

The officers of the Junior Dramatics Club are Noreen French, president; Jacqueline Conley, vice president; and Linda Cox, secretary.

Ski Club

Every wintery Saturday at 8 o'clock faithful, enthusiastic members of the ski club await the bus that carries them to Snow Ridge for lessons and a chance to practice snowplows, christies, and many other turns they have learned.

The club's officers, Tom Meehan, president; Sue Tilley, vice president; Linda Lehman, secretary; and Jim Smith, treasurer, help to achieve the purpose of the organization by promoting an interest in skiing.

The Rifle Club, under the supervision of Mr. Peter Lively, practices each Tuesday and Wednesday at the rifle range of the Carthage Armory. During the meetings members learn marksmanship and correct shooting positions as well as rifle safety. This year's officers are Peter Kesler, president; Don Zembiec, vice president; Jan Burns, secretary; and Steve Crane, treasurer.

Girls' Leaders Club

Advised by Mrs. Jack Shafer and Miss Shirley Bears the girls assist in Physical Education classes and aid in teaching. The girls practice good citizenship and show leadership in the school. All cheerleaders plus girls outstanding in Physical Education belong to the Girls' Leaders Club.

In an effort to improve the physical education program, members of the Boys' Leaders Club assist the instructors in gym and pool classes and in intramural sports. The instructors, who also advise the club, are Mr. Jack Shafer, Mr. Dan Navarro, and Mr. Frank Noble. These three men, along with the club members, work toward improving sports at the inter-scholastic level. Henry Koenig is president, and Maurice Dalton is vice president.

To promote a high standard of athletics and create a fellowship among varsity athletes are the purposes of the Varsity Club. These Varsity lettermen of CCS, advised by Mr. Henry Vetter and Mr. Jack Shafer, sell refreshments at athletic events and help in the promotion of exhibition games. For the past two years the boys have sponsored professional basketball teams such as the Harlem Magicians, who performed before a capacity crowd. Leading the club are its officers: Jim Burns, president; Pete Kempney, vice president; Bill Cole, secretary; Merritt Lehman, treasurer.

Intramurals, playdays, fun nights, and dances are a few of the many activities of the Girls Athletic Association. Advising the girls are Mrs. Jack Shafer and Miss Shirley Mears. The Club creates an active interest in girls' sports, establishes a more effective sports program for girls, and adheres to the highest standards of sportsmanship. The officers of this organization are Sally Brown, president; Barbara Vande Water, vice president; Linda Lehman, secretary; and Rita Magliocchetti, treasurer.

Varsity Football

This season Coach Shafer was faced with the task of rebuilding the team after the loss of most of the starters from his 1958 squad. Due to inexperience and lack of depth, the Comets started slowly. As the campaign progressed, the team gained poise and confidence. After a loss to Indian River the Comets came back in the fourth quarter to tie Camden. Then the team succumbed to a powerful Oswego attack. Carthage's team spirit resulted in two straight victories over arch rivals Lowville and Fulton. The Comets ended the season by dropping two hard-fought contests to Canastota and to a very superior Watertown Team.

The record of this year's J.V. football team was no indication as to the brand of ball played. Although the team had a 1-1-4 record, they displayed plenty of spirit. In most games, in fact, the Carthage boys gained more first downs and more yards than their opponents, but they lacked a scoring punch. In two of the games they lost by only one touchdown. Against Watertown, which was undefeated and unscored upon, they moved to the one yard line. Defensively they hit hard, and most teams that they played knew it had been a rough game. From the point of defense and team spirit the season was a success.

The Cross Country team headed by Coach Western had its most successful season in a number of years. The team showed great improvement in winning the first dual meet and placing well in other meets with much larger schools. The team was paced by the steady running of Leo Rennie and Dick Jaworski.

Carthage finished fourth in the Norwood Invitational, fifth in the Gouverneur Invitational, and seventh in the Watertown Invitational. The Comet runners won a dual meet from Gouverneur and lost a dual meet to Lowville. The Carthage squad finished seventh at the Sectionals in Baldwinsville. Leo Rennie finished sixth out of 95 runners in the intersectionals at Colgate University.

Basketball

Despite dire predictions, due to graduation losses and the return of only one veteran, the Comets compiled a creditable 12-4 record. They defeated all opponents but one, at least once. Their success can be attributed to a fine competitive spirit and hard work. They demonstrated excellent teamwork with the brunt of the board work carried by lanky Bob Wagoner and team captain, Jim Burns. Outstanding defensive play marked the squad's performance throughout the season. Big Bob Wagoner was the Comet's chief offensive threat. However, fine jump shooting by Jim Burns, and the rapid improvement of Maurice Dalton contributed much to the success of the season. The set shooting of John Nindl and John Intorcchia along with their fast break scoring rounded out a team which provided exciting evenings. Much must also be attributed to a hard-working second string who gave fine spot performance at various times. The Comets were defeated by Watertown 48-56 in the league playoffs.

Coach Navarro's Junior Varsity Comets had a successful record of ten wins and six losses. The Carthage juniors finished with a league record of six wins and four losses, finishing third. The team took two victories each from Lowville, Clayton, and Indian River, and one each from Watertown, Augustinian Academy, Boonville and Oswego. They lost twice to Fulton and once to Augustinian, Watertown, Oswego and Boonville.

Coach Navarro may look forward to a successful season next year with an undefeated freshman team moving up.

The Carthage Freshman basketball team, coached by Mr. Thomas Gibbons, finished an undefeated season with an unblemished 16 and 0 record. The Freshman Comets averaged 29.4 points per game while allowing only 16 points per game for the opposition. Scoring among the four regulars was evenly divided among Jan Spencer, John Dumas, Joe Ventiquattro, and Dave Cole. Fifth man duties on the squad were very adequately handled by Denny Fauvelle, Bob Hart, Tom Cauley, and Phill Montgomery. The Freshman team won two victories each from Lowville, Watertown, Fulton, Oswego, and Indian River and won one game from Adams.

The Carthage Varsity Wrestling Team, coached by Mr. Fred March, did exceptionally well by taking fourth place at the Ontario League Tournament. Gilber Gerber, and Bill Eckleman won first place trophies in their weight classes. Ron Lightholder won second place, Bob Pierce and Dick Crane won third place and Carv Richter won fourth place in their individual weight classes.

The JV's, coached by Mr. Lyle Green, won six and lost four matches. Many of the JV's had to wrestle for the varsity at times. They did a fine job and should show great strength next season.

The Comet varsity baseball team had a victorious eight and six record for the 1959 season. Coach Navarro's team won from Clayton and Indian River twice during the regular season and once from Lowville, Vernon-Verona-Sherill, and Gouverneur. The Comets lost two hard fought contests to Watertown during the regular season and one each to Lowville, Gouverneur, and Vernon-Verona-Sherill. The Comet's leading hitters were LaPierre and Lehman with averages over .400. Len Gardner led the pitchers winning five games; Faunce, Burns, and Blondin won one game apiece. Blondin's win was a no-hitter in which only one man reached base. Carthage clinched the northern division of the North Central "A" League by defeating Lowville in a playoff game. The Comets then lost the league crown to Watertown.

J. V. Baseball

The Comet J.V. baseball team ended a successful season with a record of five wins and two losses. Coach Hurley's aggregation triumphed over every opponent but Watertown. Intorcchia led the hitters with an average of .727. Mosher paced the pitchers winning three games; McBride and Knapp won one game apiece.

Golf

The Carthage golf team had a successful season in its first year of existence. Coach Vetter's Golfers turned in a season record of five wins and two losses. The Comet linksmen scored one victory each over Lowville, Gouverneur, and Ogdensburg. The golfers won twice from Boonville and lost one match each to Lowville and Gouverneur.

The Carthage team finished second in the area playoff. Dave Richardson, Carthage medalist, qualified for the Section III Tournament. Dave then qualified for the intersectionals at Amsterdam.

Coach Vetter may look forward to a rebuilding task next season since Dave Richardson, Bill Brown, Tom Vande Water and Les Allen were lost through graduation.

The Comet swim team has participated in meets with four other schools this year.

Coach Tom Habib's mermen lacking depth and experience have had a successful season against much larger schools considering their handicaps. The Comets have shown real strength in the relay and freestyle events.

Coach Habib's squad has too few members to make an extremely strong combination.

The Comets have swum against Baldwinsville, Rome, New Hartford and Lowville this year.

Cheerleaders

Stimulating school spirit among the student body is one of the main activities of the cheerleading squads. These twenty girls are a familiar sight at all C.C.S. sports functions, cheering our teams on to success. Their vim and vigor rapidly spread to the spectators making the work of these girls highly influential in our victories. All squad members are required to participate in the GAA and the Girls Leaders Club. Three cheers for the advisor Mrs. Jack Shafer and our cheerleaders.

Good luck always Sharon

Jr. Varsity

Joanne Gardner, Suzanne Baranowski, Linda Kotschevar, Sherry Pratt, Joanne Dalton, Sharon O'Dett, Brenda Rowsam, Cheryl Rueckwald.

Senior

Quiz Team: Although our Quiz Team was defeated by two points in its first bout with Immaculate Heart Academy, it showed promise for scholastic achievement. Our school is very proud of Priscilla Phillips, Marcia Maroun, Linda Lehman and David Bezanilla, who represented us on WATN at the Challenge Quiz Program. Mr. Kent Pierce, the advisor, supervised and eased the tensions on the bus trips to and from the station.
